

Rhapsody Community Award Checklist

To nominate a community for the Rhapsody Community Award the community must meet the following award eligibility criteria:

- be prepared to participate in planning a new or existing health professional appreciation event of which the award presentation would be a part;
- have not received an RhPAP / Rhapsody Community Award within the last six years; and
- be located outside out the Census Metropolitan Area (CMA) boundaries of Calgary or Edmonton with a population of fewer than 15,000. (Exceptions to the CMA boundary criteria will be considered on a case-by-case basis if requested before submission of the nomination.)

You will need to supply the following information as part of the nomination for the Rhapsody Community Award:

- Name of contact person and contact information for the nominee
- A description of why the nominee is deserving of the award
- Any relevant media reports, pictures, etc. that help to support your nomination (welcomed, but not required)
- Confirmation that the nominee agrees to be nominated and that, by agreeing to be nominated, the nominee consents to participate in the recognition event, to appear in a video tribute celebrating the award recipient, and to the use of their image in RhPAP promotions if the nomination is successful.
- Confirmation that, if the nomination is successful, community members are prepared to help plan and host a health professional appreciation event or health-care fundraising event of which the award presentation will be a part and consent to appear in a video tribute celebrating the award recipient and to the use of their images in RhPAP promotions.
- At least three letters of support that describe the efforts of the community to attract and retain (a) health professional(s) and the obstacles the community had to overcome in their attraction and retention efforts. These letters should include the following letters of support:
 - one letter from a community organization (as evidence of community support)
 - two letters from groups or individuals other than the nominator
 - other letters of support are welcomed, but not required

For more information or to complete your application, visit RhapsodyAwards.ca