

Rural VIP No. 13: Social determinants of health

Respondents rated their current understanding of the social determinants of health on a sliding scale at:

7.4/10

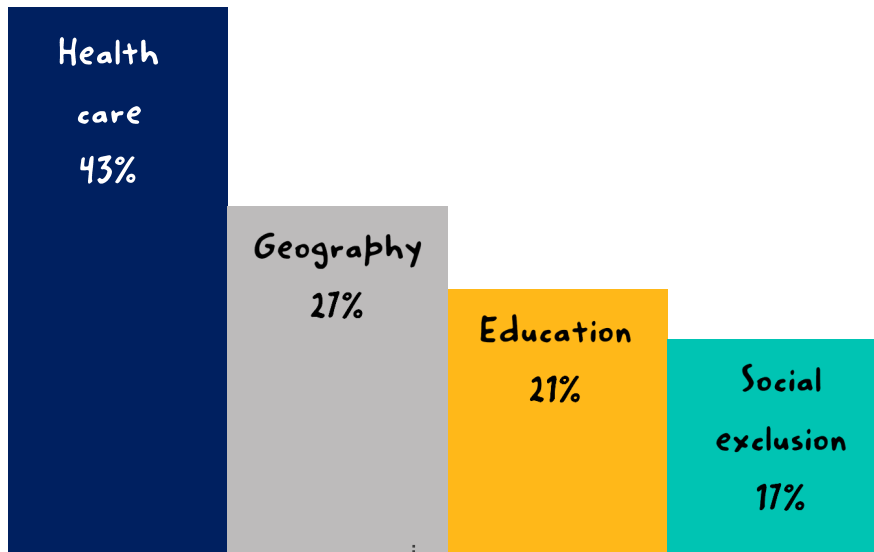

42%

of respondents are interested in how rural communities address social determinants of health and health outcomes

97%

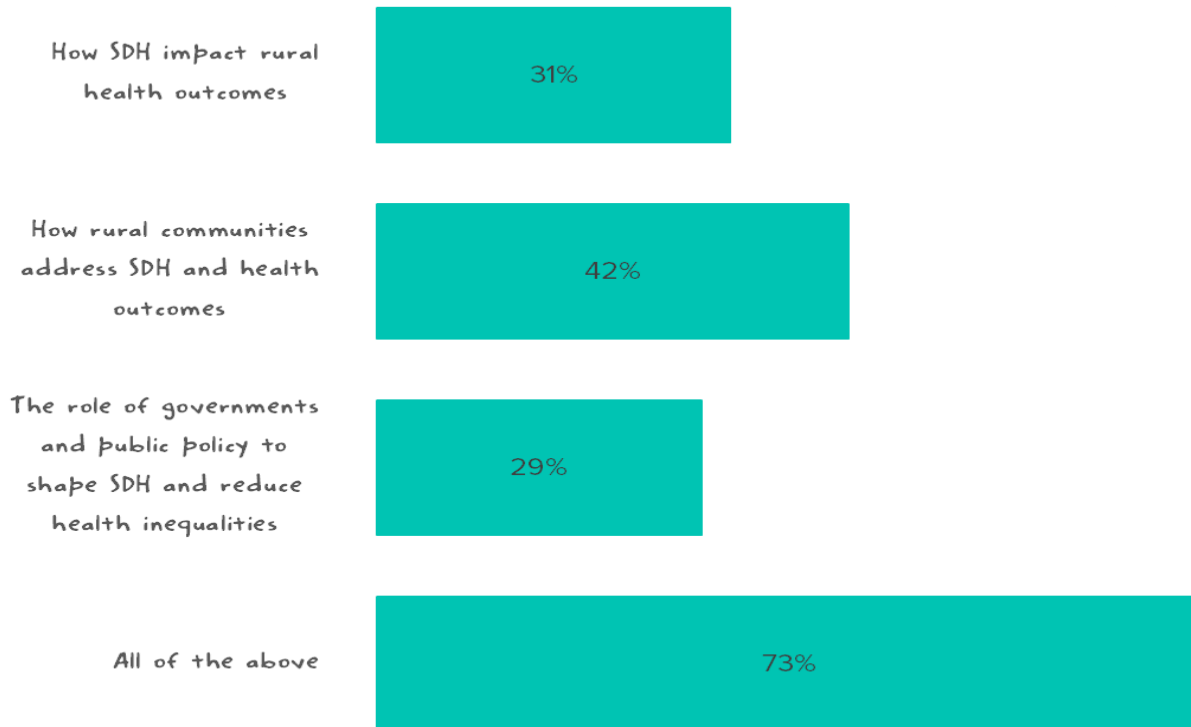

of respondents are interested to some degree in learning more about the social determinants of health.

Social determinants of health that respondents were most interested in hearing more about:

55% of respondents are interested in learning more about all of the social determinants of health listed in the survey.

Panelists were asked specifically what areas they would be interested in learning more about.

Top themes shared on challenges to rural health in rural communities:

Health care provider turnover, attraction and retention

Timely access to family physicians and specialists

Local access to health care services and resources

Transportation