

Rural VIP No. 19: Primary Care

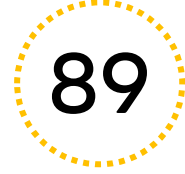

Do respondents have a primary care provider?

Of those respondents who have a primary care provider...

per cent have a nurse practitioner as their provider.

per cent have a physician as their provider.

per cent live within a half hour of their provider.

per cent wait less than one week to get an appointment with their provider.

per cent of respondents know people in their community who do not have a primary care provider.

According to respondents, there are many reasons why their community members do not have a primary care provider, including:

