Hidden Gem! The Rocky Mountain House National Historic Site is well worth the visit. Discover the historic trading post along the North Saskatchewan River and immerse yourself in stories of Indigenous Peoples and legendary explorers.

The land on which the community of Rocky Mountain House is situated is the traditional territory of Treaty 6 and is within the Metis Nations of Alberta Region 3. The histories, languages, and cultures of First Nations, Metis, Inuit and all First Peoples of Canada continue to enrich the community of Rocky Mountain House, surrounding area, and the province of Alberta.
