FUN FACT! Numerous local pioneer and Indigenous relics and photographs are on display in the Fort Ostell Museum. The Alberta Mental Hospital Museum collection was returned from storage in 2004 as part of Ponoka's Centennial celebrations. There aren't many collections of mental facilities in Canada, which makes this one special. The 'History of the Care of the Mentally Ill' in Alberta is now on exhibit and is made up of a collection of artifacts and historical materials from 1911 to the present.

Hidden Gem! With a strong agricultural and western background, Ponoka is the proud host of Canada's largest seven-day professional rodeo, the Ponoka Stampede. The Ponoka Stampede has thrilled spectators with breathtaking professional rodeo action since 1936. Visits to the Canadian Pro-Rodeo Hall of Fame, housed in the Cal-Nash Ag Event Centre next door, are a must for any Stampede visitor. Many of the greatest pro-rodeo superstars in history, including homegrown Ponoka cowboys and cowgirls, are honoured in the Hall of Fame.
